The Story:

Eve was cold and distant, telling me to take off my clothes and immediately removing her blouse and short skirt. I prefer to take things a bit more slowly. I also encouraged her to take charge, but she just sat on the bed staring at me and requesting instructions. There was no rapport, it was all rather cold and robotic.

I asked for a quick back massage and then OWO, which was very good. I then asked her to go on top and do cowboy. After a minute or so she jumped off and told me to switch to doggy ... because my breath smelt! In 50 years I've never EVER been told that! I expressed my surprise and some indignation, and needless to say lost all interest. I just couldn't get it up again. She insisted I smelt, that many English men had black teeth (not me!), and ought to see a dentist. She also kept muttering under her breath in Polish - probably cursing me for being troublesome. It was surreal.

Anyway, that was it. I gave up and left, insulted and £70 poorer.

Eve really needs to improve her interpersonal skills. She might be fine with someone else, but take some mouthwash first!
