The Story:

This is my first experience with agency annabella. I chose Tina based on the awesome reviews they display on their website, which later I figured are mostly written by their own people as the language and writing style is quite consistent.

I reached 10 minutes before before and the lady at reception escorted me to the room, which was nicely furnished and clean. She asked me if I need anything, to which I asked for orange juice that never arrived. Tina arrived after 10 minutes and looked like a stunner. She immediately asked for the money which I promptly paid. She tried to make me comfortable by asking to warm my cold hands on her ass and by caressing my chest and shoulders. She asked me undress which I did myself. Further she got to the job by stroking my cock by hand. I sat on the chair and she was on her knees but I first wanted to kiss her to get a full hard-on. She gave me a couple of pecks but was reluctant to kiss properly (To make it clear I dont smoke and I keep very good oral hygiene. I brushed my teeth, used mouthwash and chew a mouth freshening gum just before the visit). Her reluctance to kiss was the first thing that turned me off.

Anyways I let her take care of the actual job, which she started by slowly licking the shaft and blowing air on it for few minutes. I asked for OWO but she refused to take it in mouth without rubber even though I politely insisted twice (Again just for the context, I took a shower just before the visit and was thoroughly clean). She started the job with the rubber on and did it well making good use of tongue which I loved. She also suggested me to my liking to stand in front of mirror while she sucked on. She gave a good head for 10 minutes during which she let me force my full length down the throat and it felt good.

Next it was a good 5 mins of 69, her pussy tastes really good.

I got onto her in missionary but as before she didnt allow to kiss which turned me off again. She was again reluctant to open her legs and take my full length in although she did good squeezing job with vaginal muscles. I asked in her ears if can cum in her mouth to which she didnt reply. Finally I came into her. She helped me clean up.

There were 8-10 minutes left but she left the room. In the end it was a mixed to negative experience, probably my hopes were a bit high but her denial to kiss and OWO pissed me off. Also she had a totally disinterested expression all along, very less eye contact and no effort to make a conversation while I constantly tries to strike one by complimenting her and throwing some light jokes.

You can visit her but dont keep very high hopes.
