The Premises:

A large house which turned out to be flat conversions about a 12 minute walk from Stratford station. It was very small inside and there were workers working on the conversions! This is the reason why my recommendation is neutral.

The Lady:

A busty young girl with a lot of tattoos. Her breasts were 32GG and they felt natural.

The Story:

On entering the property I suddenly became aware there were workmen converting the property into a number of flats. I am sure there may have been other girls working in other rooms. The young maid that let me in said something like you know who you've come to see and then said it is teenage tits!

The session was fairly brief, but I've never been one who likes long sessions. To begin with I had a good feel of her breasts and sucked on her prominent nipples. It continued with covered oral and that was much better than most I've had. I then gave her a very vigorous banging in doggy position until I exploded into the condom.
