The Premises:

A modern flat with bathroom facilities about a 3 minute walk from South Quay DLR station. The entrance is very discreet.

The Lady:

A very friendly and educated Hungarian girl. I'm not sure if the girl pictured is her, because the girl I saw was somewhat larger.

The Story:

I'd spent the afternoon walking around the Docklands and the amazing amount of private apartment blocks. This did tire me so I was glad the service offered was massage/relief. After I showered I laid on the bed and received a soothing massage around my neck, shoulders and back. During this I had a good conversation with Sahara about Brexit so maybe that was my downfall! When the turnover moment came I really wasn't interested in a finale. I made my apologies and being a gentleman I didn't say anything about her being larger than my preferred body type. I did feel relaxed though and the conversation was good. I really wasn't that disappointed.
