The Story:

Nina greeted me at the door and we walked up yet another 2 floors to her room (she told me she shared the flat with another girl). She was dressed in a bikini and looked presentable.

I was offered a shower and when I returned, found her busy with her phone. She apologised but continued texting. After 5 min came to the bed and made some general sensual gestures that were more comical than erotic. Immediately pulled out a condom to cover me before oral. I asked if she did OWO and she said yes but didn't want me to come in her mouth. I said ok.

Oral was quite poor and she seemed inexperienced and uninterested. Her attitude put me off quite a bit - especially after paying £200. She then put a condom on me and got on top. After some mechanical movements I asked for anal and she said she didn't do it. I was taken aback because I had checked while booking and the receptionist had said yes, Nina did a levels. By then I was quite irritated and didn't try to prolong a bad experience, came quickly and left.

I blame this agency as much of a rip off as the untalented girl herself. She misrepresented her services and the agency called Babes of London misrepresented her non existent sexual skills. They obviously don't care once the punter has paid. Neither does the girl.

Advise the reader to stay away in strongest possible terms. Waste of time and money.
