The Premises:

Keri works from her own home, a small house on an estate on the outskirts of Middlesbrough. It isn't the most salubrious of areas but it still feels quite safe. Parking in the next street is very easy and the house is a short walk through a cut. Inside the house is cosy and clean. It is discrete in the sense that it is the sort of neighbourhood where the locals won't tend to give a toss that she's escorting for a living.

The room that she works in is rather small but it is adequate. Keri will often offer a coffee and have a chat before the upstairs session, and she makes it very clear that the paid time does not start until the client is undressed and ready, in this sense she is scrupulously honest.

The Lady:

Keri is a very slim blonde in her mid 30s. She seems taller than she actually is because she is so slim, in reality she is probably around 5 feet 7 inches. She is very small busted. She is white British and the photos of her on the purple site are quite genuine. She is always clean and will wear a requested outfit for a booking. She has several uniforms and a small collection of bondage and BDSM gear.

Her profile on the purple site comes across as chavvy and gives the impression that she is a bit thick. In fact I now think that this is a deliberate impression she is trying to give, she is actually articulate and intelligent when you talk to her. Maybe she thinks that us punters prefer the girls to be that way.

The Story:

I have been to Keri three times, each time for a GFE type visit. She is very friendly and welcoming, to be honest I think that she is a little lonely and really welcomes a client for the company.

She is very enthusiastic in everything that she does. She gives very good oral and on one visit I had CIM. Her hand relief is also excellent. She accepts reverse oral, but she prefers this as 69 rather than just the client performing on her. She once performed a very nice striptease for me to music. Her enthusiasm is unbounded and she would certainly be very upset if she thought that a client left unhappy. Overall she is a very nice girl and worth a visit. If she has a fault at all, it is that she tends to be very talkative, which I think may be a combination of nervousness and loneliness, but if you don't mind a very chatty escort then you could do much worse than check Keri out.
