The Lady:

As agency description and photographs. Very nice! Large tits which were probably natural.

The Story:

Anais has been on my list for a while as she is high up on the Rosebud top ten. I was concerned that the OWO "at discretion" in the description would be an issue - alas with justification since she made clear right from the beginning that it wasn't on offer. That was a bit of a disappointment.

Anyway, after a quick shower we got down to action. A bit of light FK and covered oral. That was OK and things soon developed to completing round 1 (missionary).

There then followed a massage and an attempt to start round 2 - however, Anais sucking on a limp condom-covered cock didn't really do anything for me. To be honest I had had a busy week (travel for 2 nights with my international companion earlier in the week followed by demands at home) and I was ready to call it a day. However, Anais decided she could succeed with a handjob and after a while round 2 was completed. Normally I take issues with handjobs as I can do them myself without the need to pay for it. Other ladies would have resolved the issue with OWO and rubbing their pussy in my face - alas neither of these options was on offer.

So this was a pleasant enough experience although I would not have her as high as #3 in the top 10. At least 4 of the girls lower down the list provide better service (see my previous reviews).

In addition the fee of £250 had been elevated (from £220) due to some kind of cartel initiated by other agencies. I was out of there after 75 minutes so in reality this was a £200 hourly rate and I did not get the service I would expect for that rate. I think if the £250 rate is going to stick then I need to modify my strategy!

I give her the benefit of a yes recommendation primarily because I was already shagged out from previous strenuous activity earlier in the week so it's possible some of the disappointment was of my own making.
