The Premises:

We met in her own bungalow which was clean and tidy, the room was quite small with only just a little spare space after a double bed in there.

The Lady:

Her AW profile says 46 but I felt older or at least showing more signs of wear & tear. Thicker around the middle than I expected and I suspect her breasts were enhanced as they felt too rounder and firm although I could see no signs of surgery.

The Story:

She was friendly and we started to embrace, I undressed and she gave me a soft back 'massage'. We kissed but despite her profile saying French kissing she resisted that. Another failing on the profile was OWO as when she started she went straight for a rubber, when I questioned she said she did not do without for the end just the shaft, this seemed pretty pointless. We progressed to sex, I had earlier confirmed that it was going to be one pop as that is all you get at my age these days. We tried cowgirl, mish, sideways, which was actually spoons and reverse cowgirl, she was quite tight and with the disappointment of the OWO I struggled to feel fully in. We ended with her providing a lotion aided HR.

Had I known the issues at the start I would like to think I would have bailed despite the travel to see her, this due to a bit of a lack of responses this first week after the new year.
