The Premises:

Daisy works in a nice little pad in Paddington. In fact, the best tube station is Paddington station too which is very handy.

Inside, the place was quite nice and I decided to have a shower before we got down to business. Everything was clean so no complaints there.

The Lady:

Daisy is from East Europe and has a sexy accent. More importantly, she has an unbelievable body and a sensational arse. This hot brunette definitely ticked all the right boxes.

The Story:

I would say her photos on the agency site are pretty accurate and she really seemed in the mood on the evening. When I stepped out of the shower and went into the room I had a proper steamer.

Daisy gave me a blistering body massage which was truly erotic. We then kissed each other in a very natural way; it was as if we had just met like any couple.

I placed her in the missionary position and under normal circumstance this would have been a pleasurable bit of intercourse, but I was on fire and I cannot properly convey to you the pleasure as my member slid in and out of that incredible pussy. I was so wound up I felt like an unrestrained animal. We then got into the doggy position and every thrust was heaven inside that velvet slit of hers. When I came I ordered her to get on her knees and it was one of those orgasms where your penis just seizes up and the feeling is like nothing else.
