The Story:

I used be a regular with the agency back in the day when I regularly went on business trips to the northwest as they without fail delivered quality gfe's with the types of ladies which define my favourite punting experiences. Many of my Pnet reviews for them are still up and it came as a shock to realise that most were over 10 years ago with the most recent being nearly 8 years old. A rare visit to Manchester provided the opportunity to renew my acquaintance with them.

Becky was described on the phone as possessing natural E breasts, womanly curves and being very passionate. I needed no further encouragement and went ahead with the booking. When we eventually met, I found myself strongly attracted to her and this was sustained throughout our time together. She was keen to please and while she had a few boundaries, her gfe was pretty much like one with a new partner and did not disappoint.

We parted with her saying that she enjoyed more than she should and me completely sated predicting, with total accuracy as it turned out, that I would sleep well that night.
