The Premises:

Basement flat 100m off Edgware Road. Shares a two bed place with Mia and Elsa (and possibly others), as evidenced by my review for a visit the previous month.

The Lady:

A newbie on the scene, but just take a look at those photos and the video on her website - I'm pleased to inform she's just as hot as she looks in them!

The Story:

Decided to give Rachel a try after researching the other girls in this flat (having visited the same venue for a duo the previous month).

Olina's were again very responsive and helpful via text on the phone, and clinched it again over others with their £10 per hour discount for 2017 for existing customers which was a pleasant surprise!

Greeted at the entrance again by a stunning looking Rachel wearing lingerie and heels. Quick shower and I was back again, Rachel's arms wrapped round me whilst she kissed me standing up, before we moved onto the bed.

The room itself (further to the back of the flat) was absolutely sweltering by her own admission. This is the middle of the night at the beginning of January - it was freezing outside. She constantly made apologies advising there wasn't another room available and turned the fan on to ease the heat. After beginning with a hand job whilst we french kissed, she moved on to OWO which was definitely above par. I decided I had to have some of her shaved pussy before I popped in her mouth, so we repositioned for missionary. Unfortunately the temperature wasn't conducive to going all out on her, so we switched to a 69 position shortly after and continued that way for a good 20 minutes.

Her shaved pussy and trim backside definitely had me going, and her arsehole looked similarly inviting so it got just as much attention during the 69ing (apparently she offers anal, so must definitely try that next time!) As the hour was approaching, she sat up and played with herself whilst I finished myself off - finishing in her mouth.

Her conversation was definitely the most natural of all the Thai girls I've seen - thought she was English/American at first, so the chat was great throughout!
