The Premises:

Kittens has had extensive refurbishment in recent months, beware workmen still there and off putting. Cannot comment on the decor as I couldn't see much. This is due to the dark environment of the establishment. Needs some lighting. The girls introduced themselves but I could hardly see them because of the poor lighting. What I did notice was someone had dog breath (assumed it was a worker who were walking about the building). From what I could see I chose a slim Romanian girl called Rebecca.

The Lady:

Rebecca is a size 6 Romanian girl, would not give age but I guess about 30. Long black hair and pretty if slim girls are your thing. Not normally my thing but she looked shaggable so I went for her. Especially as she was looking all innocent as she leant against the wall smiling at me. Rebecca has small tits but nice to suck on.

The Story:

Rebecca shouted over the room "what is he having" not a discreet place. 15 mins GFE was the reply. We went through to a room just off the main lounge. Not a problem usually, apart from we could hear talking between the workmen and a reception male there. The room has a plywood bed, obviously just a mattress on a block of wood. Not the usual standards they used to have before the refurbishment.

Rebecca took the money and left me to undress on my own. When she came back I was undressed and she messed about putting her money away. I went behind her and played with her small tits and had to get them out myself. She was still putting her money away, so I put my hands down the front of her panties (I was still behind her at this stage). I rubbed her pussy for a while. Once she had finished with her money, remembering I only had 15 mins. She turned around and removed her bra and panties. She started to wank me and I went in for a kiss. She is not a very good kisser at all. Then I could smell her really bad breath I mentioned earlier. It was Rebecca who had the dog breath. I didn't bother trying to kiss her again. I asked for OWO, which she did as I watched in the mirror. To be fair to Rebecca she is good at OWO, but no cum in mouth. On with the condom and I laid her back for some slow fucking. Rebecca said be careful, this is because she is slim and my cock is thick, she said. I am sure if a baby can come out my cock can get in. As I started to fuck her I could smell her extremely bad breath. I couldn't go on, so asked her to turn over, as not to endure the smelly breath any longer. This was off putting. I always make an effort to clean my teeth and shower prior to visiting someone. I expect the same from a girl. Over she went and I fucked her doggie style till I shot my load. I went through the motions as I thought if I stopped I would have paid £35 for nothing. Once done she gathered up her clothes and left the room. I was left to dress alone. I have been to Kittens for over 30 years as they usually give a good service. I visited when they were at the other side of the city. The place is far too dark, especially when you come in from the bright daylight. As I was leaving I wanted to complain to the male receptionist but he was not there. I got back into my car and made a call to complain. I told the male about he needs to speak with Rebecca about her bad breath and surely they can smell her. I told him I had to turn her over to finish as her breath was off putting. He apologised but I didn't feel valued, especially as I must be their longest client. I don't feel I could go back, that is a shame after all these years. I have celebrated many birthdays their, and a few years ago they sent me to their penthouse suite so celebrate my 50th birthday. That is when I felt I wanted to go back. Shame on Kittens, you have spent all that money but not concentrated on the girls standards. They open at 12 but I had to wait till 12.30 till anyone was ready.
