The Premises:

The flat was in central london (near Oxford Street). Entry was very discrete, next to a restaurant but there was no chance of discovery.

The flat itself was small and clean. Theda is an exponent of 'Tantric' sex so the place had a smell of incense about it. It didnt live up to the description on the web site but it was comfortable enough.

The Lady:

Theda is a good looking girl, she has now got blonde hair which suits her very much. She has massive boobs and a large belly, which I happen to like. If you are a fan of the catwalk model type, Theda is not for you.

The Story:

Her web site promises a sensual, sexual, tantric extravaganza unfortunately she falls well below that. I paid the ?250 for an hour and a half.

She offered a glass of red wine to start, which was very nice after a day in the office. We then moved into the bedroom.

We started off with a massage, which was very pleasant but nothing earth shattering, then after 15 mins she asked me to turn over and she started rolling a condom on the old chap. Fair enough thinks I, she then proceeds to roll another one on!! Sensitivity is now reduced to zero, not a good start.

We start off with her on top, then doggy and then between her boobs.I finally cum by my own hand (without condoms!).

She then gets me cleaned up and offers me a vodka (this is to be drunk whilst getting dressed).

I was in there from start to finish for about 45 minutes, and at 250 quid that simply isnt value for money.

You are better off with the girls at Creme de la Femme.
