The Premises:

As described before. Discrete doorway with open white door to short passageway. Next to computer shop.

The Lady:

Pretty and petite Thai lady. Medium tits topped with very suckable nipples.

The Story:

Phone comms excellent to pre-book a couple of days ahead. Rang on the day to confirm.

My first time with a Thai lady and very enjoyable it was. Just realised I popped my Thai cherry with Cherry ;)

Cherry is very pretty and was chatty and smiley throughout our time together. No awkwardness at all.

Started with excellent OWO while I stood (offered choice of OWO or OW). Had to stop her after a fairly short time to prevent an early ending. Lay down on bed for chat cuddles and fondling and sucking those incredible nipples which I kept going back to throughout the meet. Gave her a little RO, she was fresh and clean and happy with fingering at the same time.

Moved on to covered sex, initially in cowgirl at my request. Excellent and very energetic. Cherry then moved in to reverse cowgirl which was again incredible with views of her peachy little arse. Switched to doggy which was a little uncomfortable at first with us both on bed. So switched to me standing with her on the bed which allowed for quite an energetic pace to be had with her again giving encouragement and eye contact in the mirror in the corner. Finally on to missionary with one leg up on my shoulder.

Finished with some more great OWO to finish in her mouth. She took a huge load with no problems while I turned into a wreck beneath her. Spat discretely (sadly not a swallower). She helped me clean-up.

Light kissing throughout which is my preference, does say on her profile DFK but I didn't attempt so can't comment on that.

In summary a great time had with a cute petite girl who was up for everything with enthusiasm. Only problem is she is normally only on 1 weekday a week and those are normally not good for me (week off for me atm) but she did say she may get some weekend shifts as well so I will be keeping an eye on the rota and will definitely repeat when schedules permit.
