The Premises:

Cheshire Elite (formerly Excell) has changed a lot. Formerly, the bedroom upstairs has now been relegated to the staff room and the old staff room is now another room. Ditto with the old TV lounge which is now a new room bringing a total of three rooms now - something that might give Brooklynn's a run for their money since there are more girls available - and all have working showers now in each room. The waiting room is now near the back door and it is now a public waiting room (may be an issue for those who need some discretion). A bit of an issue with parking because of the Aldi across the way and the residential areas nearby so you may need to walk a couple mins or a street or so depending on your parking location.

The Lady:

Heidi is a fairly tall blonde Eastern European, athletic build, very cool demeanour and personality but warms up. The pictures are not bad but she does seem a lot better when you meet her.

The Story:

Highly recommended in the website's comments so was waiting for her (as she is very popular) and I found her a little cool in personality to begin with but, after you literally break the ice, she seemed a lot more happier and friendlier in the bedroom. She does all the main services and she's very pretty and I find her very easy going after we got to know each other and found more about her. Either way, Heidi is worth a visit but you might have to talk more about what you want from your session.
