The Lady:

Absolutely Gorgeous! Her pictures and descriptions are accurate. She blurs her face online but believe me she is beautiful. Her personality and voice may be even more beautiful than her physical looks!

The Story:

I traveled to London from the US for business recently. A few weeks before arriving I called Angelica during her day and she picked up, she was so sweet to talk to. From that moment I could not wait to get to London. I sent her a text when I arrived as she requested, she called me in the hotel the next morning to confirm and again that sweet delicate voice drove me crazy with anticipation. She arrived on time dressed in a stunning black cocktail dress. When I opened the door she walked in, looked at me and gave me a big smile on that gorgeous face. We sat on the couch for a while and I was so enamored with her that I wanted to get to know her a bit so we went down to the bar for a drink. After one drink I could not take it anymore so we returned to the room. I tried to remove her dress but she said she wanted to freshen up first, and asked me to wait on the couch. I poured myself drink and opened a bottle of champagne for her. She came out in sexy black lingerie that showed off that wonderful body of hers, it is truly amazing! I was seated on the couch so she came over and removed my clothes in a way that I cannot get out of my head. Her GFE is unsurpassed, in my mind she was my girlfriend that night and we did everything I wanted and everything she wanted. We talked and laughed like old friends, we had a really good connection and it was incredible sex. She is amazing! It was an evening that I will never forget.
