The Premises:

The place was alright - nothing special. I took the tube and that was easy enough.

The Lady:

I was in the mood for a bit of hard action and Zoe looked good with those massive knockers and big arse. In reality she look ok but not amazing.

The Story:

Zoe did her best to perform some OWO. Her mouth was nice but she was a bit over eager on my balls and cock – I just like them to take their time to do the job properly and I she tried her best to lick and suck my cock but didn't really seem in the mood to please. As she licked my bell in the vibes told me that she was going through the motions even the experience was decent enough.

The best part of the evening was our role play sex. Basically, I was a businessman dressed up in my suit at the office giving my secretary some discipline. She was dressed for the part in a super-tight white blouse and equally tight grey skirt clinging to her arse and thighs.

We held a mock session whereby I told her about the many things that she had not been doing in the job. She kept apologizing while flashing her legs at me. I was pleasantly surprising at how this role playing put me in the mood for some sex. I asked if she wouldn't mind me sitting closer to her so I could reason with her. At one point she said that she would make up for her slacking and asked me if I would like to punish her with my cock.

I soon had my hand up her skirt and my tongue down her throat. Although I was turned on enough to screw the fantasy wasn't as hot as I envisaged it.

After a French kissing session, I just got hold of her, told her to get up and lifted her skirt up and pulled her panties down. Before my secretary knew what was happening, my rock hard cock was fucking her tight pussy very fast. I then asked her to strip so we could finish her punishment. We got onto the bed to continue the doggy style ramming and I finished with COB. Zoe carried out the fantasy in a perfectly efficient manner and I have no complaints but something was lacking.
