The Premises:

Elements Spa near Baker Street - good, clean premises.

The Lady:

NOT the lady pictured as Kim on the London Royal Massage website. Less attractive but still ok, tall, blonde, size 10 or 12 maybe. Polish.

The Story:

A WARNING: Kim is awful, the worst massage I have ever had and she has a terrible attitude. Also beware of London Royal Massage, they don't care if you complain.

Kim wasn't the girl on the website but still looked ok so I thought I'd go ahead. I asked and paid for a b2b and the next 60mins were the most lacklustre and underwhelming massage of my life - like she didn't want to be there. There was no b2b and when she gave me a hand job, she was so rough and rushed I had to ask her to stop because it hurt. When I complained to her that I had ordered a b2b she pretended that she thought I'd said sensual but didn't volunteer to pay me back the difference. And when I complained about her attitude, she was totally unapologetic. Basically I hated this experience, it has put me off booking through LRM again and I wouldn't want any other customer to waste their money with Kim.

I hate being ripped off so called and emailed LRM to complain, they promised to get back to me but, of course, they didn't. I'll never use them again,
