The Premises:

I received a massage treatment at Escape Massage in Bishops Stortford, a new discreet salon opened up about a month ago in the heart of the Town above a parade of shops and just 30 seconds walk from the multi-storey car park.

The premises were exceptionally clean and very well appointed, the treatment rooms were spacious and included a large walk in shower. The lighting and music created a very relaxing and tranquil ambience.

The Lady:

Scarlet was a very attractive slim young Bulgarian Lady in her early twenties and approx. 5'4" in height with Brunette hair and with magic in her fingers.

The Story:

I arrived on time for my midday appointment and was immediately put at ease with a friendly welcome and a choice of 2 young very attractive masseuses. A very difficult decision was made and Scarlet joined me after I showered and settled onto the massage table. Her English was minimal but conversation was irrelevant as I soon drifted into a coma with Scarlet's delicate tantric style touch. During the massage treatment, she also deployed some effective techniques but the light tantric stroking was incredible, she showed expert concentration and application throughout the hour, and it was an hour, not 45 or 50 minutes as is often the case elsewhere.
