The Story:

We were both a little stressed, Cherry was 45 minutes late due to train trouble. Given the rush to change and be ready for me, she did well be as receptive as she was. In my part of Bucks we are nicknamed the "cherry pickers"(amongst other things I'm sure!) on account of the many cherry orchards there were in days of yore. It felt like fate that Cherry and I met (!)and half an hour later, following lovely owo, RO, mish, doggie and cowgirl...I was glad I'd picked her ;-)
