The Lady:

Electra is a stunning woman, lovely sun kissed skin, wonderful figure and some very artistic tattoos which mark her out as a unique lady. Extremely friendly with beautiful eyes and a captivating smile. Her profile says "inviting personality" and my word is that an understatement.

The Story:

I had read some very positive recent reviews on Electra and decided to visit her. When we met she invited me up to her room and once inside gave me a nice gentle kiss on the lips (this was just the beginning), and asked me to hop into the shower. Once done I waited on the bed and within thirty seconds Electra appeared. She lay down beside me and began french kissing me, her lips wrapped around my own in such a way i thought she was trying to eat me, not that i would've complained, and her tongue invaded my mouth with passion. My mouth hasnt been this probed since i last went to the dentist. To say Electra is a good and passionate kisser is a huge understatement.

It was at this point that we were interrupted by another lovely girl, Abbie was her name. She came in and lay down beside me so now i was sandwiched between two gorgeous women and for a brief moment i thought i was going to get super lucky and have two for the price of one, but sadly i'm not that lucky and i got the feeling that the two women are quite good friends so she just popped in to say hi and didnt expect me to be there. Abbie gave me a kiss and asked that I "Look after" Electra, well a gentleman never refuses a request from a lady, before giving a flattering comment about my manhood and exiting the room. I was left stunned at all this but it just added to the bliss of the moment and my attention quickly returned to the gorgeous woman i had come to see.

We kissed over and over again, holding each other in our arms, before i asked her to stand and remove her clothing. She did so with a smile and very soon before me stood a magnificent sight, a sun kissed, blonde haired angel with an infectious smile. We stood for a minute or two holding each other, kissing and caressing, before moving back onto the bed. I asked to worship her feet and she said she would like that. She gently pressed one foot to my mouth and begun to moan softly as my tongue moved across and between her cute toes. Then she did something i truly wasn't expecting, Electra began to trail her foot down my body and then started gently massaging my cock. So skillful was she in this that her foot acted almost like her hand, caressing me gently and then placed my shaft between her big toe and the one next to it and began to slowly jack me off. I have never experienced this before and it was the first of many treats to come.

I then began to do what i love doing most of all and that was to caress a woman, to explore her body and let her fall into bliss at my gentle touch. I used my finger tips to slowly stroke down her spine and to this she emitted a soft moan, more was to follow as i moved from her back to her waist and to her legs. Next i began to taste that sweet arse of hers. Electra seemed to enjoy this as i could hear her cooing softly as my tongue explored her. When i asked her to turn over i made a trail of soft butterfly kisses up her torso before coming to her ample breasts. I played with her nipples whilst she ran her fingers through my hair, then i swear my body acted on its own as i found myself locked in a passionate embrace with her once again. Electra held me close, wrapped her legs around me and began to grind against my member. When i said i wanted to eat her out she smiled and positioned herself accordingly, I started off slowly and tenderly before going in like a starving man who has had a delicious banquet placed in front of him. Electra REALLY enjoyed this, her moans grew louder but not so loud that they would be deemed fake. She thrust her hips this way and that and pinned me gently in position with her thighs, I pulled away tricking her into thinking that i had stopped and then dived in again and i could hear her giggle with joy and passion. I repeated this trick at least three more times and each time brought renewed pleasure. I must have been eating her out for at least fifteen minutes and the look of satisfaction on her face made it worth it. "You really know how to eat pussy" she said, thanks sweetheart.

Next it was her turn to pleasure me and this is yet another example of her great skill. Electra is one of those women who knows exactly what you want and how you want it without the need to ask. She began caressing my shaft and licking my balls, covering me in saliva. Then when she did wrap her lips around me there was great passion but it was also very gentle, a perfect combo in my opinion. Electra went about pleasuring me for what seemed like ages and i would quite happily have let that be the case but now i desired to be inside her. On with the condom, applied orally of course, and to town she went. Never has a woman looked so glorious in the cowgirl position before. She grinded against me and began bouncing up and down on my cock, i asked her to do this a little slower to maximise the pleasure and she gladly obliged. She leaned forward and wrapped her arms around my neck and began to moan softly into my ear, all the while bouncing down on my member. We were both so happy in this position that i didn't want to change. When i could feel myself release to pulled me into a sitting position, her arms holding me tight and her soft breasts pushed against my chest.

After we had cleaned up we still had twenty minutes to go and so i asked if we could cuddle, Electra liked the sound of this and with a smile lay down at my side and wrapped her beautiful body around mine. We kissed, we caressed (Her feet being as athletic as usual began to rub all over me in a soft massaging motion) and we chatted briefly about this and that. So at peace was she that she said she could drift off to sleep in my arms. I said that was fine and i would wake her up when it was time to go. I looked up at the glass mirror on the ceiling and there before me is a sight i shall treasure forever, a beautiful angel at peace in my arms. This is the sort of thing that dreams are made of.

Electra is a truly fantastic woman with a beautiful personality, she gave me an experience i shall treasure forever. 100% Perfection.
