The Premises:

A ten minute walk from Gloucester Road or South Ken tube stations. The flat is in a quality building and must be quite expensive. The lounge is large and airy whilst the bedroom is also large with a massive double bed. Everything was absolutely immaculate.

The ladies at the agency were relaxed and helpful. I also liked that on the confirmation text, they actually showed the percentage they were taking from the fee.

The Lady:

A gorgeous looking young lady in every respect. The website describes her as a gym bunny and she is most certainly very fit and works out regularly. She said she has some better photos than those on the website but I told her I thought the photos were fine by me and there was definitely no photo shopping. Despite all the gym work she told me about, she still has a wonderfully sensual looking figure. She looks the best of both worlds, both fit and sensual. The smile you see on the website is the natural smile you see in real life. She is from Brazil and apologised for her English a couple of times. I think her English is more than adequate and she is very chatty at the right moments.

The Story:

I am new to Tantric massage and she told me that she would begin with a sports massage and Tantric massage combined, moving onto a sensual massage. I soon realised that she has strong fingers and as she moved on to body to body it became more and more evident how toned she is. The sensual part was great and although no penetrative sex was involved, I was very happy with the way things ended!

The whole experience was great fun and there were some moments of laughter as well. She is very genuine. I should also point out that I am a gentleman of pensionable years and she had no problem with someone of my age.

In a couple of months or so she is intending to go back to Brazil for three months before returning to London, so it might be better to visit her sooner rather than later.
