The Premises:

The Swiss cottage venue is central and perfectly located for me.

Clean and charming with ambience about it. Candles lit and flowers out, I knew that with this type of detail I was in for one hell of a session

The Lady:

I'd been following Mistress Stella for a long time and we had been keeping in contact while she had been gracing the subs of California for 2017. So I was delighted once she was back in London and had to see her immediately.

It's always said but in this case applies extremely, that no photo could do her justice. I understand her choice to not show her face, but to combine that face with that body, it was almost too much. She must have people staring at her everywhere she goes.

The Story:

She was very thorough with her emails and speaking beforehand. Wanting to make sure she had all the details down, conducting herself with such professionalism I knew I was in good hands.

I wanted to make a good impression with a Mistress of this calibre, so enquired Stella's preferences on flowers and wine.

I brought along peonies and prosecco, and the honour of making Stella happy set my heart afire. After she chilled the wine, we got to getting to know each other and Stella's intuition and intelligence shone all over me. I was in awe of her and really felt a genuine warmth coming from her.

She then commanded me to go and clean myself up and come back in to the room wearing only a towel, I of course obeyed.

The following 2 hours were some of the best of my life, I just feel so lucky to have found her.

I wanted to be taken over, to no longer think, and to be of absolute service. I've found my Mistress, the search is over.

She tied up my cock and balls for the entire session, a sign they were hers. Blindfolded and bound on her bed I was teased and edged for what felt like an exquisite eternity but also passed in the blink of an eye. Her ability to show me that my body did indeed belong to her was mind altering and I was transported to another place.

I had forgotten about the prosecco until all of a sudden she was feeding it to me from her mouth. Prosecco will never be the same again.

She introduced me to anal, allowed me to worship her exquisite feet and even permitted me to write this review.

If you're looking for skill, she has it in every department, but it's the ability to really get in to someones mind, the complete surrender, that I've been looking for, and I found it.

Stella is allowing me to see her regularly and I couldn't be more happy, but if you're looking for the real deal you can be sure of it here.
