The Premises:

Nondescript door in a row of shops. Didn't feel exposed. Inside is a lovely (and spacious) downstairs flat with lots of room.

The Lady:

I don't really care about the age - Debbie is my type of woman. Medium to short, curvy brunette, and a glint of evil horniness in her eye.

The Story:

I'd previously had to cancel an appointment with Debbie, so when I phoned up this time and the maid recognised my name I was impressed. Turned out that there is another regular with the same name, and I was mistaken for him.

Didn't matter. The maid took everything in her stride with a light sense of humor. A time was made and away I went.

In fact 'light humour' typifies the entire punt - from the 10 minute chat with the maid to Debbie sticking her head round the door as she was 'jumping in the shower' the whole thing was fun, enjoyable and memorable.

Debbie herself started out in a cocktail dress with a cleavage Elvira would be proud of. A quick settling of the money and Debbie led me through her wardrobe to choose a suitable outfit for a bit of roleplay.

And all the hints you lot get is we went for something 'Gothic' (amazingly there was a costume to match and very nice it was too).

Even with two punters waiting (in separate rooms) Debbie took the time for some post coital hugs and kisses, chatting about Punternet and me showing off a bit...

A quick escape route through the bedroom window (I kid you not, felt like a scene in "The Likely Lads") was a memorable end to a smashing punt.

Pity that she's starting to get popular...
