The Premises:

I met Gigi in a top floor flat mid-way between Queensway and Lancaster Gate – I've been there before to visit another girl and was relieved to discover that the lift has been fixed.

It was a non-descript and forgettable room..... whatever happened to the funkily lit and inviting boudoirs that many of the Thai girls used to have a few years ago?

The Lady:

Photoshopped in extremis! Gigi is nowhere near as slim as depicted and, although reasonably pretty, nowhere near as attractive without the professional make-up. On a positive note, she doesn't sport a mum-tum.

The Story:

Meh!

The OWO was not bad and Gigi did allow some pussy-play (with lube!), but she was generally unenthusiastic and not at all keen on RO, which is a deal-breaker for me. Also, she was in a real rush to get the condom on despite there being plenty of time left. Sadly, I wasn't really turned on enough and the sex was very dull, and so I lost it after a few minutes.

Gigi was reasonably pleasant company once it was clear that I would be making no more demands on her body, and I had a massage for twenty minutes to run the clock down – I'd rather have enjoyed some more intimate interaction, but the mood had left me.

Gigi readily admitted that she has no interest in sex and gets no enjoyment from it. Fair enough, I can't really complain about that, but there are plenty of girls that go to the trouble of at least making the effort to fake it, and they are the ones that get my repeat business.

Gigi has only been in London for a few weeks and claims that she was not a sex worker back home – they all say that, but I can actually believe it based on her lack of skills and professionalism. On that basis, I'll give her a neutral as maybe she will blossom over the coming summer - although I won't revisit.
