The Premises:

I went to Abigails because there was nobody I fancied at nearby Fingertips (which is both a nicer and cheaper parlour in Fenton). Although the owners at Abigails take a big cut of nearly half the standard fee, little that cash is ever spent to upgrade or refurbish the place, which falls well below the standards of others. Other parlours in Stoke and Crewe are palatial by comparison, whereas Abigails (and nearby Adeles) both have the feeling of doss-houses. Abigails is poorly heated, poorly appointed - no videos, no decent bedlinen, and towels that you would only wash your car with.

Abigails has become a parlour of last resort, I'm afraid.

The Lady:

Fairly new to Abigails, Lana is a pleasant fair-skinned English brunette. Described on the phone as aged 30, she immediately admitted to being 40-something. A "girl-next-door" rather than a "stunner", she nevertheless had a nice figure and a nice manner.

The Story:

Because the management's cut is so great, the girls at Abigails often press for cash from punters for "extras", and some things one might expect to be included are subject to an further fee. This somewhat takes the shine off things and turns any visit into a rather pricey occasion. In the room, Lana performed well enough and was quite fun to be with, so I can recommend her; but I have such an aversion to this crummy parlour that I doubt I'll visit it again.
