The Premises:

Entrance is through a door on a side street that faces a pub on the other side of the road, so it can feel a little exposed.

Once inside the place is really nice and clean.

They make sure that you don't run in to any other customers which saves some potential embarrassment.

The toilets and showers are clean and available both before and after massage.

The massage room is nicely decorated and has plenty of mirrors facing the massage table so you can get a good view of the masseur.

There is mood lighting and music playing which give a nice atmosphere and helps you to relax.

The Lady:

Carla is slim but curvy and attractive - around medium to small height. She looks to be around 30ish and I agree with an earlier reviewer, I don't think this is the same lady as the website pics, however, as already mentioned, she is attractive and sexy so what does it matter?

The Story:

This was my third visit to Hush. My other two visits were very positive so I had high expectations. I was a little weary of booking Carla because she has previously had a really bad review but Carla was the only girl available at the appointment time I could do. I needn't have worried - she was fantastic.

She was very polite and friendly and I felt completely at ease with her.

Her massage technique is equally as good as my previous visits and when I heard the words 'turn over' I was already feeling really turned on.

This was where her technique really made her stand out from previous visits - she was amazing, she even convinced me she was enjoying the experience - and yes, I know is what they want us to think, and they do this hundreds of times a year so it's like any other job to them - all I can say is she's a fantastic actress and it really helped enhance my experience.

I will definitely be back to see her and would strongly recommend her to anyone.
