The Story:

In short, if you want an unhurried GFE, then Brenda is well worth a visit. She has returned following a break for a couple of years. If you see her photos, I'd guess the first two are how she used to look and the bottom ones are how she is now.

Although I have been doing this fairly regularly for a fair while, this is my first post. I normally wouldn't bother seeing a girl without good reviews, let alone a newbie, so I know the value of a good review and Brenda deserves it.

I had planned to see another girl, but as I wasn't in control of when I could get to MK, by the time I called both Plan A and Plan B weren't available. I picked Brenda based on the profile pics and I had never been with a Brazilian before, so figured what the heck. Damn glad I did.

I happened to arrive 15 mins early. After knocking twice (the only bad thing about the experience) I was shown to the top room. Large, clean, good bed, mirrors, chairs and a few restraints & toys lying around. Normally I might have been tempted to play, but as this was a newbie and those services weren't listed I figured I would go with the flow.

To my surprise Brenda walked in 5 mins later. Very nice (description above). There was then a bit of a funny moment with the paperwork as she had come in whilst I was getting myself undressed, so hadn't put it on a side like normal. All good fun. Also her English is not great, which led to a few funny moments.

It all started normal enough. Lots of kisses (lips at that stage), small talk, caresses etc. We were soon sat on the side of the bed, her naked, me in my boxers, kissing, her fondling my cock into action and me playing with her lovely breasts and very responsive nipples. She then started licking my ears. I love this but normally have to ask, so I stopped all I was doing to enjoy the pleasure of having my ears and cock played with together. I soon pulled down my boxers to give her better access. Heaven!

But knowing time was ticking, I started to stroke her nipples back into pertness and then moved my hand down between her legs. Then keeping a close eye on her face I gently stroked her clit and started licking those nipples.

Seeing that she was clearly enjoying all this, I took my cue I kneeled down between her legs to lick her clit while reaching up to caress both of her breasts. This she loved. I built it up until she pinched my head between her legs, grabbed the back of my head to push me into her and came with a torso quivering moaning orgasm. I love to make a woman come like this.

'You are very dangerous' she said in her very sexy accent. I came back up to start kissing again, but now she was full of passion with proper DFK and more ear licking.

Soon she was working her way down. A great OWO followed just how I like it, with lots of ball and shaft licking, before taking me in her mouth. I was now close to coming myself, but wanted to finish inside her. So I asked her to rubber me up, which she did combined with some more oral.

I briefly wondered what position, but she placed herself ontop with some more kissing. I took the hint and lifted my cock up and she thrust down on me.

She was now clearly up for it and started to work away hard. But I wanted to enjoy the moment and the feel of her lovely pussy around me, so I told her to hold still and then adjusted so I could get some proper deep and slow penetration. Once deep inside, she then did that really amazing thing that means that she was either really enjoying it or really good and clenched her vagina tight around me. Wow. At this point instincts just took over and I started thrusting hard until I came.

My 30mins was up, so I fully expected her to roll off and send me on my way. But instead we spent the next 10 minutes chatting, finishing up when we would have finished if we had started on time.

All in all a great unhurried session of the sort that normally takes 2-3 sessions with the same girl to achieve. So if, like me, you like to please as well as be pleased, Brenda is a very good lady to see and I look forward to coming again.
