The Premises:

One of the usual Anabella flats; near the City Centre, large easy parking nearby so discreet access to premises.

The Lady:

Veronica's pictures does her justice, she is tanned, tall, tantalizing and titillating (enhanced breasts) age circa 42, Czech origins, a chiseled face, North London accent, athletic stag of a body, brilliant personality puts you at ease instantly. (in my case to much at ease) read on.

The Story:

Its either the onset of Alzheimer's or old age, but I lost track that I've already had the pleasure of Veronica. I usually write a review and for some reason didn't last time? I rarely visit the same Lady twice as variety is the spice of life, with the odd exception

As soon as Veronica opened the door we both recognised one another. So with a peck on both cheeks we wondered into the pleasure room. Usual ask if I need a drink or shower and with paperwork and pleasantries over we got down to business. Now this must have been the easiest money Veronica has earned in a while, not sure why but? I was in two mind driving up the Motorway if I wanted to make a visit to Anabella and thought why not? This was a mistake because my mind was just not on it and for all Veronica's efforts I struggled to rise to the occasion. This was no reflection on Veronica's looks or BJ technique the old chap was just not in the mood. Then to mine and Veronica's surprise and adding insult to injury just five minutes in I shot my bolt?

Well that was it my old chap was done and dusted so Veronica gave me a lovely massage. We had a good conversation about her up and coming driving test, holidays and life in general but no intercourse.

I had to smile to myself when I departed, Veronica must have thought he must have money to burn (which a haven't) just a lesson learnt, when in doubt, don't do it.

From previous memory Veronica was a good turn she has an amazing body (no excess) just a well built body (great legs and ass) so if you're looking for a "vixen" of a shag Veronica is a "true and honest image".
