The Premises:

As described in numerous other reviews.

The Lady:

Brit, 20 something, brunette, slightly taller than average, attractive in a girl next door sort of way, medium build, enormous breasts, lovely manner, very likeable. The photos currently on her profile are headless presumably to accentuate her attributes as much as to preserve her anonymity but I pretty certain it's her body. Facially, she was prettier than I was expecting.

The Story:

Like for many other people working in London at the moment, work has been extremely hectic and fraught as a result of the prevailing political uncertainty with work needing to be scrapped or overhauled with every twist and turn in government policy. Tired and highly stressed, it soon dawned on me that a punt would be the best way of restoring my equilibrium. By coincidence, Morgan was working on the day I was able to slip away from my desk - she'd been top of my must see list since she first joined HoD but I hadn't managed previously to synchronise our respective availabilities.

My stress melted within seconds of her entering the room as a result of her very engaging manner. After a little icebreaking chit chat, she asked what services I like and didn't like. It was good to see that she didn't take the one size fits all approach employed by some other ladies in the industry. "I like gfe" I responded to which she replied that it was something she could do. She then asked whether I'd like prostate massage, well not exactly in those words but along the same principle. I declined.

So we started with an embrace and the kiss soon became fk which soon became dfk. Then she asked me whether I liked her breasts. There was only one answer to this question as she presented them to me and nuzzling them was the only reaction I could think of. Then it was onto owo which much to my delight extended to the scrotum.

"Do you want me to go lower?" she asked. I agreed enthusiastically and she started licking the perineum. "Lower still?" she asked again. She pre-empted my response as her tongue probed what in my opinion is the most erogenous of the male erogenous zones.

Rimming is something I really enjoy receiving but would never ask for so it's always nice when ladies offer it. Morgan confided afterwards that, while it is listed on her profile, she only does it at her discretion which is perfectly understandable. She added that she could sense that it would be something that I'd like. It was just as well I showered before leaving the house that morning and again before leaving the office for the punt. I couldn't get enough of it but soon I realised it was coming close to the time for finishing so it was back to owo for cim finish. What a climax it was. It was truly incredible. There was a short one lasting 2 or 3 seconds. I recall being puzzled by this as I usually have long powerful ones but after a break of about 8 seconds with her continuing to work away came an enormous one which went on and on. There was no doubt in my mind that this was a result of her pressing all the right buttons and doing it very well.

To conclude, summarising my time with Morgan as being excellent will be seriously understating the enjoyment I got out of it. The service she provided was absolutely remarkable. I left with a huge smile on my face and a spring in my step feeling superb. My equilibrium was well and truly restored at least for a few days.
