The Story:

Mid twenties English girl, not unattractive physically.

Daisy could talk for England, most of it, unfortunately, not very interesting. She's extremely impressed with her own career in the adult industry which she talks about endlessly, seems to believe she's some sort of Hollywood star. It appears never to have occurred to her that some people might not find that interesting or impressive.

Sex-wise, she's full on. I'd say more PSE or certainly that side of the line than GFE. Seen some reviews that says she does schoolgirl role-play well. Not my thing but I can imagine this is true as, other than facially, she looks the part.

Can't complain about her service...did what it said on the tin but for me nothing special. There just wasn't a connection at all. Basically, felt like I was with a service provider which, obviously, I was.

Given this a neutral because I can easily imagine she has her fans and that she delivers an excellent service for those who want the sort of service she specialises in. Unfortunately, I'm not one of them. Didn't really get much out of the punt simply because there was no connection at all and I'm not after porn star experiences.
