The Premises:

A nice and easy incall in Earls Court. Nice basement apartment, plenty of space, clean and tidy. I felt safe and secure and we were certainly alone.

The Lady:

Donatella isn't her real name, no LOL! She is the girl in the pictures though for sure, yes you can believe it. Absolutely beautiful, no word of a lie. Tall, slim (enhanced boobs), fabulous, flawless skin with little to no make-up at all. Her age is about right I would say. Speaks relatively good English too. And an altogether nice young woman.

The Story:

Donatella looked amazing when she answered the door. Her hair was all done up lovely, she had on a long yellow dress with two massive splits up the side showing off some black lace hold up stockings. She had heels on beneath the dress, but I couldn't see them until she moved because the dress was so long. Made her look incredibly tall!

She kissed me and introduced herself properly, as I did the same. Quick shower and straight into the bedroom where she was already undressing and really looked rather keen. I like the Russian girls for this, they always seem into it. When she was naked her body looked even better than it did with her dress on (shape wise of course). It was obviously that she had breast implants, but this has never really bothered me anyway to be honest. When I felt them, they did feel a bit hard, but still the whole effect was lovely.

Her OWO was good, but not as good as I've had recently from Russian girls and this was a little disappointing. But I say this because of the comparison, not because she wasn't good at what she did. I think I may have spoiled myself somewhat! Sex was very enjoyable however, and we tried it in most positions. My favourite was from behind because she has a fabulous arse. Easily the best feature on her body in my opinion. Firm and very cute! We finished in missionary with some heavy, very passionate kissing.

A nice girl, well worth the time, but she should probably drop her fee from £250 to £200 more in line with some of the other girls of that service quality.
