Comms

I saw Julie two weeks before my return visit, just over a week ago.

I had had a great time with her, but also wanted to sample A levels. As always bookings through the guy who mans the Olina phone were clear and efficient.

The Story:

Looks

She is about a size 8, looks better than her pictures, lovely clear skin, natural breasts and smiley positive nature. I asked that she wear the maid panties & silver top that she has on in the pictures on the website again.

Services

Compared to the demur greeting I was greeting by a warm welcome, big hug and DFK straight away. I had my hands all over, squeezing her shapely (but not fat) ass, I put my fingers into her crotch and sucked her tits, whilst she sent her confirmatory texts.

As soon as she finished I had her on the bed, opened her legs and started tongue fucking her and inserting an exaplatory finger into her ass. I had intended to stick my cock into her mouth, but she was starting to get breathless, so I thought I would finish the job.

She took out my cock and started licking its length, whilst playful sticking her fingers into my arsehole. What followed was a mixture of DT, ball sucking and some rimming. I would have usually motioned for more rimming, but the momentum required some frantic fucking - which is what followed, in every which position, before I asked for anal. Which she complied with, as if it was another position change, on all fours, stuck her ass in the air, quick application of lube and I was in. What proceeded was the most fierce bout of anal pounding that I have experienced, before finally cumming in her tight, clenching ass. None of this you are too big for marlarkey.

She then gave me a medium firmness massage and started to get firmer on request. It was a decent massage, but given the whirlwind round 1, I really didn't want to spoil my vibe going for another go, just because I could. I told her to continue the massage. She kissed me on the ear, with a relieved whispered thank you. I guess she may have been a little tired, too.

A great return visit. My concern is that I won't see anyone else now!
