The Premises:

Upper level flat in a building on a semi-busy street near some restaurants. I tried to keep my head down, so I don't know if anybody was staring at me when I entered. When I left, someone was coming out of one of the flats on a lower level, so I quickly sped my movement down the steps! The room itself was very nice. Large, quiet bed with mirrored headboard and en-suite shower with room enough for 2.

The Lady:

We all know website photos have gone through some sort of touching up, but in that same vein, I don't think her selfie pictures do her any justice. She may want to retake these as I think she looks much prettier in person than those selfie photos. This girl was cute, bubbly, giggly, and smiling for a whole hour. An incredible body as well.

The Story:

If my first experience with the Thai providers didn't convert me immediately, Ivy certainly did. This was a wonderful hour. As I said, she was bubbly, smiling, and while we can never 100% know for sure, seemed to genuinely be enjoying the time just as much as I did. Not only did she have a great personality, she had skills to go along with it to make her a complete package.

The standard shared-shower started things off after paperwork was completed. She dropped to her knees in the shower to give a little test of how well she washed me off. She must have been satisfied as we quickly moved to the bed after this. This is where some of her skills started to shine. After some more mutual fondling of the goods (amazing tits on this girl, which is always a huge plus for me) and some oral, she started to make her way to get on top. I honestly thought she was getting on there without a condom. I questioned her about it and she took my hand and put it on me to show me she put one on. I have absolutely no earthly idea when the hell she put that thing on. To the point where we both laughed about it. She was definitely doing OWO, so she must have magically slipped it on with her mouth right at the end I guess...

Anyway... She knows how to ride on-top properly, for sure. Up on her feet with long in-and-out motions. This girl is very flexible, which was further demonstrated during missionary, with her bending and contorting her legs in various positions to mix it up here and there. This was followed by doggie for a while, which she really got in to. Things were finished up with a great OWO/CIM session. After this, she provided a massage for the 10 minutes or so we had left on the clock.

My only "downside" with this visit was that communication was a bit hard, as I think she is very new to London and her English was a bit limited. I only call that a "downside" because with her personality she was putting on and the conversing that we were able to do, she seemed like she would be a really fun person to have a conversation with, besides just the sex.

She has no other reviews that I can find, so I was worried about trying someone unreviewed, but she was an absolute find, for sure. I have no idea when I'll ever be back in the UK again, but it probably won't be in the near future. If I do come back, this girl is the first person I'm looking up for an appointment, no questions asked. I just don't know if she'll still be around with the turnover of the girls...
