The Premises:

Usual premises in Fenny Stratford. Discrete entry directly from the large, free car park. Daisy was working from the large, ground floor room, plenty of space but it could do with some soundproofing from the communal space outside. Listening to the girls' conversation outside can be fun, but could also be distracting.

The Lady:

Daisy is even better in the flesh than in her photos. Beautiful, slim and toned, but much taller than I expected. Small perky breasts, topped off with beautifully responsive nipples. A tiny waist leading down to a totally smooth and oh so neat little pussy. Perfect.

The Story:

A last-minute decision to book Daisy, and as usual MKE didn't disappoint.

Daisy clearly loves her job, she is friendly and professional, and keen to fit as much into our time together as possible. It would have been impossible to sample all of her skills in such a short visit so I didn't try. We started with a little massage, then very sloppy blowjob with lots of attention to the balls. After spending some time exploring that amazing little body we ended with more oral and a nice load over her perky little breasts.

Altogether an exciting experience with a sweet and professional young lady. I'm looking forward to sampling more of her skills soon.
