The Premises:

2nd floor flat on mainish road in Victoria. The accommodation was cosy but clean and pleasant. There was an in bath shower in the small but adequate bathroom.

The Lady:

Cherise doesn't look like her photos at all. The pictures on the very uninformative and amateurish website suggest that she is a finely honed gym bunny, aged very early 20s, with long blondish hair. She isnt. She is much better than that. She is a few years older and her figure has become irresistibly feminine. Her breasts are fabulous - natural, full, soft yet perfectly shaped. Her bottom ditto. Her hair is now shorter than in the photos and dyed silver and multicoloured. Her face is not visible on the website, but she has nothing to hide - pretty, sexy, welcoming.

The Story:

Initial surprise when we met - as explained above - but certainly not disappointment. A few business matters sorted out - including the not unexpected explanation that on top of the advertised £180 for 90 minutes, there was a £40 surcharge for unlimited touching. Happily paid. Then a few minutes anticipation while the bath was run.

We squeezed into the bathroom and squeezed a bit more to get into the bath. The advertised rose petals (see the website - but don't take it seriously) were missing, but who cared? There followed 20 minutes or so of luxurious soapy fondling. Her breasts were not only good to look at - they possessed a supernatural magnetic force which made it impossible to stop my hands from caressing them.

Everywhere was now super clean, and so to phase 2. The back massage was not strong, but teasing and tantalising. Phase 3 - turn over for more of the same with full visibility and accessibility leading to a shuddering conclusion.

Overall, a wonderful experience to be repeated soon.

But the website is really atrocious. The girls are wonderful (see earlier report on Roxy) but the photos aren't representative and there is no description. The text is full of silly errors and fails to give any proper information. The "goddesses" deserve better.
