The Premises:

Relatively easy place to find, 3rd floor flat a few minutes walk from Baker St Station. just make sure you press the correct door number, I was told by the receptionist to make sure I select the door number that ends with A and not the door number without A. I almost selected the number without A. The place itself is nice, she lives there on her own, small 1 bedroom flat with kitchen/living room and toilet/shower.

The Lady:

Much better looking in person than her photos, not that her photos on the website are bad. But an absolute knock out in person. quite a bit more petite looking than her photos with lovely juicy breasts and a gorgeous smile. Her English is good enough, a couple of times there was some misunderstandings but overall she did not struggle to converse.

The Story:

Got to baker street station a little early, the flat itself is about 5 mins walk from the station and I was there about 20 mins early, so I popped into the globe pub opposite the station for a nice pint. Pub was pretty dead as you could imagine due to CV. left the pub 5 mins before meeting and called the agency once I was outside for the flat number as I am a new customer. Her flat is on the 3rd floor so I walked straight up, it was only when I was leaving did Tracy point out the lift which I completely missed on the way in.

As soon as I arrived Tracy greeted me with a welcoming smile, I passed on the gift and I insisted on showering immediately. got a towel and had a quick shower and I came back into the bedroom, she asked me if I was OK to kiss and I said yes, the kissing itself was inbetween a PSE and GFE, neither hard nor soft with just the right amount of tongue. After that everything moved very authentically. I started from her breasts down to her pussy back up to her breast etc, she had my head in her hands and moved me from place to place wherever she wanted me to go. I then laid on the bed to receive a lovely OWO and I would describe it exactly that way, it was lovely, The OWO was varied and I told her I like it wet and she made it wet, as I said above the experience of everything was delivered somewhere inbetween a GFE and PSE.

on with the rubber and Tracy rode me on top, I then moved her in to mish and finished in doggy.

After that she gave me a beer and a massage and explained how CV has affected her work, as you could imagine it is very quiet. I then insisted on giving her a massage which she really enjoyed and said she would book me next time for a massage LoL. After her massage my little boy woke up a little so she asked if my boy needed a massage and I said yes so she gave me a handjob then a blowjob till I CIM! at this point my time was already up and she told me I could shower as she had no other appointments and there was no rush, I turned this down as I was so relaxed after the session I really wanted to get home and have a relaxing bath, on my way out as I was getting dressed she made small talk, mainly what she was going to do tonight which was watch Netflix, I recommended a couple of things, gave her a hug and was out the door, promising her I will be back and I meant it.

I don't punt a lot, Tracy was my 4th escort and all have been Thai, my first time with Olina escorts, before that I have visited other Thai establishments and my feelings on escorting have been mixed. Either the service was great, but the girl was lacking in the looks dept or bad communication or they looked great but was disappointed with the performance. As I left all 3 escorts before I have felt not fully satisfied, this was the first time I thought there is nothing I would change about that meeting, Tracy looks amazing, the service was delivered with enthusiasm and authenticity and immediately I wanted to book her again and I will.
