The Premises:

A conversion flat in a rather grotty part of West Croydon not far from the train and bus stations. On-street parking is available nearby for a charge. The actual room was reasonably clean and tidy but somewhat bland. No shower facilities were provided.

The Lady:

Sherline is Romanian and in her mid 20s with long dark hair. She is not unattractive and is certainly the girl in her AW profile although she has either put on a fair amount of weight since her photos were taken or they have been photoshopped. She speaks reasonable English and was pleasant enough. A couple of other girls were also working alongside Sherline.

The Story:

After a week at home due to the coronavirus lockdown, I just had to get out for some exercise. You know the type of exercise - horizontal jogging. With pretty much all of my usual haunts closed due to coronavirus, this was one of only a handful of places open.

I called up and was given the address. On arrival I was let in by Sherline and shown to the bedroom. While completing the paperwork she tried to overcharge me based on her published AW fees before she then said that any kissing or other extras such as OWO would cost more so I declined them.

We then both undressed and there was about 30 seconds of mutual caressing before Sherline tried to put the jonny on even though my fella was not standing to attention. After I'd given her ample breasts some attention and was hard she put the jonny on. This was followed by a reasonable BJ before sex in the missionary and doggy positions at which point I came. Unfortunately Sherline showed little interest in me throughout and much more interest in her mobile phone.

In normal times I now avoid Romanian girls as the experience is almost always rushed and they want the money without providing the service. Unfortunately these are not normal times so I suppose I should be grateful I got my end away at all.
