The Premises:

The place was very satisfying to be in, Great setup, Friendly people and also a little easier to find when I thought it would be harder. Ego is a beautiful place with all the great facilities on board.

The Lady:

Sophia, well she is very much as described on the website, Photos on the website are great but she is even greater in person, Her smile is just the job and honestly she is very calming and chilled which is just the job.

The Story:

Once I got to the premises I was taken through the normal procedure for COVID, As soon as that was done I was shown to the room and asked to take a shower which I standard protocol for me. Once I stepped out of the shower Sophia walked in and introduced herself to me, I instantly went quiet as that what I do when I like someone. I then laid on the bed and she started to massage my legs, Her touch was incredible and soft. Once she did my legs she then proceeded onto my back which is where I get the worst pain when I work carrying heavy things everyday, She was extremely gentle and got very close to me which was an awesome feel. She then told me to pay on my back and started to massage the "python" however because I had so much on my mind by this point there was no "Happy Ending". I was not upset, more annoyed with myself for no relaxing. She then asked if I wanted a shower I obliged and took one (Only polite) we then talked for a bit about many things. I was then taken downstairs and let out. Honestly Sophia is incredible and beautiful. Thank you.
