The Premises:

As described elsewhere clean & fairly discrete good on street parking at this time of day
Can pay with Credit / debit card but charged £5 for that pleasure!

The Lady:

As described elsewhere - perhaps a bit thinner than her pics on website but no the worse for that - in short lovely !

The Story:

Not sure place would be open because of CV-19 rang up to check in morning - pleasant conversation with receptionist.

On arrival sanitiser on door before entry & temp check no fuss about it just mater of fact - not offered shower this time - would have declined anyway.

Asked if could pay by card (had already check this earlier & had paid by card in past) receptionist Megan & I had quick chat about services & costs flashed the plastic & up to the room.

This bit could be embarrassing for a first timer. Not offered drink as in the past - was dying of thirst - stripped off waited for Megan - renewed our acquaintance - quite pleasant massage & then down to the main event. Just right amount of chat - discussed her new tattoos - something I sort of hate & like could not see them properly without my glasses but had a good look at her tats & other parts with glasses on both A1 as was the main event(s).

Downside - think management may have changed as in the past not asked how long I wanted & there was a hurry up knock on door but we had finished anyway.

There has always been a 1 way system here so leavers dont meet up this the next client but I could not open the black gate - funny really but I thought I might have to stay the night but receptionist spotted me struggling with gate on cctv.

Anyway Megan if you get to read this thanks for everything - hope to see you again soon.

Highly recommend.
