The Story:

First time I have dipped my toe into the wonderful world of BDSM. I don't think I could have chosen better. Madame Emmy is very welcoming and put me at ease immediately. She is very down to earth, honest and chatty. We had a very laid back chat about my interests and how far I wanted to go. As this was my first time, I left that in the (literally) very capable hands of Madame Emmy. She dressed me in a red suspender belt and the fun started. First my hands were shackled and Madame Emmy started with nipple clamps. I like those. Next was my cbt. Madame Emmy started with a riding crop. She is a great shot and hit all three targets every time. I could see the sadistic pleasure on her face. That in itself was a turn on for me. There was also some kind of paddle for my balls. It was huge but I loved the pain. There was also a cold steel butt plug which was eased into my arse. When the final bead went in, my very stiff cock gave a twitch of appreciation. This was left in for the remainder of my visit. The nipple clamps were removed and my nipples were sucked and bitten. Huge turn on. I was then hooked up to her milking machine which is a strange but nice feeling. We finished off with a glove with lots of lumps and bumps on it and I was brought to a satisfying climax. Considering this was my first visit, I don't think it could have gone better. I then had a very refreshing hot shower (maybe it should have been cold). We also discussed what we could do on my next visit. Yes Madame Emmy, I will be back. Madame Emmy has literally boxes and boxes of equipment which I can't wait to try. Top of my list has to be the electric urethral rods and one of the many strap-ons. If anyone is thinking about getting into BDSM, I suggest you start with the best. Thank you so much Madame Emmy. Already looking forward to our next meet xxx
