The Premises:

Cheshire Elite is formerly Excell Sauna used to be which was in the fabled McCoy's guide as the best in Crewe in the 90's. Parking can be found on the streets nearby or the car park across at Aldi though be mindful that there is a lot of traffic in and out in that car park. Access is done via the front or the back but both have stairs to climb up to the parlour above. Greeted by a receptionist who looks a little like Chardonnay from Footballer's Wives! The waiting room is public so you are sitting on a bench with other peeps if you are there - like Brooklynn's - so if you are uncomfortable about that that might not be a plus. There are three rooms: all relatively clean, showers inside, the main issue seems to be that, on hot days, some of the rooms get awfully hot due to the heavy blinds and curtains drawn inside and the windows (obviously) closed to avoid noise but also sometimes a little stuffy. (Mind you, in the winter, it might be warm in the room on a cold day by that reasoning).

The Lady:

Lolly - a cracking and unique name - is pretty much like her photos but now a auburn-slash brown hair. Late to mid thirty's, slim and kept things relaxed. No A-Levels, extras for OWO and OTC, ok with reverse oral and she was pretty much down for most things when asked about it.

The Story:

After a brief chat of what I liked, we settled in for a massage to start warming up whilst we were chatting about things and what seemed to be a basic service was cranked up to 11 when she asked if I could turn over to massage her front as she put some lube on her hands. Some hard kissing, followed by a sensual hand job as she guided my hand on her where I could feel her getting wet. Some oral on both sides happened, deep french kissing, missionary and then I opted to have her finish with me off in her mouth as an extra. It was hot, wild and I came harder than expected - a great session. I definitely would see Lolly again and she gets my recommendation. She did say - as she was new to the rota - she has no official days to her knowledge so you probably have to check the rota.
