The Premises:

Top floor apartment, parking was limited, but I got the tube, 25 minute walk from the station.
Her bedroom was messy, not professional.

The Lady:

Small, extremely chubbier than her pictures, probably a size 18, not a size 12 as she claimed to be, Irish accent.

The Story:

This was quite possibly the most disturbing booking I have ever had with a female. Other than Jane not using up-to-date photographs (she is very much chubbier than her pictures), it was clear that Jane hadn't bathed in a while as there was discharge clinging to her hair on her vagina.

Now this is the worst part... there were open herpes sores all over her rectal area and the outside of her labia. I touched one as I asked what this was and she grimaced in pain and tried to pass it off as a shaving rash... SHE DOESN'T SHAVE! Her vagina was unshaved. It was unlike anything I've ever experienced. This girl was unclean and obviously desperate for the cash because she REFUSED TO GIVE ME MY £200 BACK saying she had already gotten naked, she threatened to call the police if I didn't leave.

What am I meant to do? Have sex with you and contract herpes for the rest of my life? Over £200? I said 'if you need it so much fucking take it'. I got dressed and left.

I would not recommend this girl at all unless you want the herpes virus for the rest of your life.
Completely unacceptable.
