The Premises:

Basement flat at HoD, described on this site many times before. Was meant to be upstairs, but got a text changing to the basement at the last minute.

The Lady:

Mixy is a short and petite Thai lady with medium sized breasts. She is apparently half Colombian, but I wouldn't have been able to tell. Looked 100% Asian to me.

Her body is incredible, with a slim frame and beautiful natural tits with very suckable, responsive nipples. She seems naturally slim rather than toned and has a pretty face with very luscious lips.

If I had to guess at age I'd say early 30s is probably about right.

Body is accurate to the photos, possibly even a little slimmer than she looked in the pink set, but face was blurred so can't compare there.

The Story:

Was greeted at the door by Claire, who really struck me with how pretty she is and may warrant a visit if our schedules line up when I'm back in town in a couple of weeks. She led me inside and after a little initial confusion about whether Mixy was working upstairs or in the basement (seems there had been a last minute switch up between the two flats) she appeared in a sheer flowery camisole and led me in to the first bedroom.

I waited for a minute before she returned, we sorted out the paperwork and then we began. I didn't ask for a shower as I had one just before leaving my hotel.

We began with some kissing and she removed her camisole to show a beautiful white bra and thong set. It's a classic for a reason. She then led me to a mirror, where we stood and I fondled her amazing tits for a while after taking off her bra.

She led me to the bed for more FK. The FK was never DFK but nor was she resistant to a bit of carefully utilised tongue, and even gave some back herself. A couple of minutes of that and some grinding against my body before some OWO, which felt amazing. She mostly focused on the head (which I prefer anyway) but took the whole thing deep once or twice, and even licked my balls and down pretty close to my arse as well, which was unexpected and very nice.

I asked her to sit on my face for a little bit which she obliged. I think we did that for about 5 minutes and she made the right noises but didn't seem to be getting anywhere close to orgasm with it so I moved on.

I couldn't hold back anymore so we popped the condom on and she rode me. Let me tell you, her pussy feels divine. She put a bit of lube on before she rode me but I don't think she needed it. She was extremely wet and I could feel every inch of myself moving in and out of her. After a bit of riding we did some mish, which included a lot more FK, then flipped to doggy in front of the mirror for the finish. As she could sense I was getting close she encouraged me to keep pounding her hard until I came, which I did gratefully.

This was my first punt in a couple of years due to being stuck abroad and unable to return for a visit due to the Rona. It was my second visit to HoD after I saw someone (whose name escapes me, but I'm pretty sure she doesn't work there anymore) and I'd had a pretty negative experience there before due to a total lack of chemistry with the girl. These combined to make me VERY nervous about this one, but Mixy is so lovely and welcoming that she put me at ease immediately.

She seemed like she was having a good time (she kept playing with my nipples and repeatedly saying they were really great nipples, which was a new but not unwelcome experience), and that she actually enjoyed the work, which was a welcome change from a couple of other agency experiences I've had where the girls have been looking to get it over with ASAP. No clock watching and we happened to finish at almost exactly the half hour mark, though I was in no way rushed out after we were done. She actually encouraged me to take my time and chatted with me while I was getting dressed about my weekend and the other girls that were on this week. She was delighted when I told her I was seeing Apple tomorrow.

Overall a really good half an hour with a beautiful, sensual lady. If you're after a Thai/Asian experience in London you're way better off spending the money on Mixy than going with one of the Asian agencies in my opinion.
