The Story:

Arrived a few minutes early to be met by Jess wearing red lingerie. Shown to the room & got the paperwork out of the way then off for a shower. Jess followed me back into the room & commented on my tattoos while sat on the bed, then removed my towel to start stroking me. Jess asked about one tattoo & when told the answer she couldn't help but laugh. Then she started slowly giving me owo while looking up keeping eye contact. This went on for a few minutes, slowly picking up the pace. We moved onto the bed & Jess carried on giving me owo until I asked to 69, so straddling my face I got to taste her. I had to ask her to slow down while I carried on licking. When she started again it wasn't long before I shot my load over her fantastic body. Anyone who has read my reviews before will know that I like to snowball but as Jess doesn't do cim I just had to clean her up, while licking my cum of her tits she said that she'd never had this done before. After a quick massage & chat it was on to round two, starting with more owo before I asked to go behind her so on with the rubber & with Jess on all fours I slowly entered her tight pussy. We changed positions a couple of times before Jess was on all fours again, but with time running out I thought it best to finish myself off while going down on her then rimming Jess. The only problem was that I could only book for 45 minutes which was my fault as I left it until the day to book, got to book earlier & for longer next time.
