The Story:

After looking for a while to sample some new (to me) talent in MK who offered a strapon service and with the opportunity for an impromptu punt, I had some difficulty in deciding between Helen @ Annabella's or Priscilla at MKE. A couple of positive reviews for Priscilla swung it for me as against the numerous neutral or negative reviews for Helen.

Booking was the usual efficient HoD process and upon arrival I was directed to the top floor room just as Priscilla was coming down the stairs in her civvies saying she would be up in 5 mins.

It was only a few mins later when she arrived in a set of blue lingerie which showed off her toned body. There is little photoshopping of her pics, she clearly loves the gym!

After asking about the strapon service, she confirmed that she provided the service and was happy to use one that I had brought with me. She also has her own.

Previous reviewers have remarked that Priscilla delivers her services at speed, and they are not wrong. After asking where I wanted to start, we commenced with a light kiss and cuddle on the bed before she moved down for some OWO. This was really good, alternating between fast and slow, deep throat, ball sucking and teasing with her fingers in the right areas for me, before playing with my ass using a large butt plug. After a couple of hits of poppers, I asked to taste her pussy, she moved into a 69, lovely & fresh, I could have stayed like this for a while, but Priscilla had other ideas.

She wanted to use the strapon and wasted no time getting it on and lubing it up. Priscilla clearly knows how to use a strapon and really got into fucking me in doggy before I asked to turn over. Priscilla was keen to continue and produced a cushion to raise my bum for easy access and continued to fuck me as consumed more poppers.

When my ass could take no more, she returned to more great OWO and with the addition of a glove, set about giving an expert prostrate massage. The end came with her fingers in my ass as I wanked my cock to a heady orgasm. After a clean up she offered a massage which was again very good and firm before I had a shower and a chat about this and that before I made my way home.

Priscilla does have limited English which could make for a difficult punt for some, however it was fine for me and I would return, especially to see if she slows down on subsequent visits!
