The Premises:

Large block of flats 1st floor near Bayswater tube. Basic Knocking shop, bland very small room in flat with another working girl servicing client in different room while I was there. Bed cover in state not clean and covered in hairs from previous clients. shower facilities down hall very basic. to me room did not have nice feel or energetic.

The Lady:

nice face eyes ad hair but ends there. Not the sort that looks after her health, very flabby waist and butt lot of cellulite, boobs big and droopy and chubby thighs. much worse than her profile except hair eyes and face. Part Spanish. From looks would say about 35. She said she had been in the game 5 years.

The Story:

Sage was sort of ok to talk with English sort of ok but needs work. I found very disconnected and superficial, personally I did not find her physically very appealing and should have followed my gut instinct and walked out before paying as it turned out a wast of money for me. She is a distracted phone watcher and under the superficial niceness I felt like I was just another lump of meat client to get done as quick as possible, I really did feel like I had been screwed by her on leaving but not in the having a enjoyable sexual interaction way. She did a small bit of very basic back massage which bored her very quickly kept constantly suggesting a blow job and put a condom on me then I suggested missionary but she just seemed to use her hand rather than me being inside her. got the feeling she just wasted me to come quickly and didn't really feel she was coming from a truthful love and service. I left 15 minuted before the hour was up as I wasn't really enjoying the experience or company very much and the constant sniffing like she had a cold or flu put me off a lot. Wouldn't go back and wouldn't reccomend personally.
