The Story:

Rang to book ahead. Jess has many reviews already and I can only confirm what others have said, she's well worth a visit.

Arrived a couple of mins early and after a short wait outside I was let in and asked to wait in the loo for a couple of mins. This was not a problem but I've never actually understood why one fella will not want to be seen by another in one of these establishments, after all everyone is there for the same purpose.

After a couple more mins I was ushered from the bathroom to a bed and told that Jess would be along shortly so I decided to get undressed in readiness. Sure enough Jess appeared after another few mins and apologised for keeping me waiting as a prior booking had overrun. I have to say she looked absolutely stunning in what I can only describe as a white lace bodice. instantly aroused, I engaged in a bout of kissing, no tongues but very nice all the same. After disrobing completely we moved to the bed where I gave Jess's perfect tits a closer inspection. Having got to know them intimately Jess asked what I wanted next and I chose OWO. It wasn't long before I had to return the favour so we engaged in a prolonged bout of 69. I had been keeping a sneaky eye on my watch and as we were already half way through the 30 mins I gently rolled Jess over and asked her to boot me up. Having done this she straddled me and started gyrating on my cock whilst holding her boobs, god what a sight.

I had planned to slowly work my way into the process by moving into missionary and was then going to end with doggie style but the fact it had been a while since I last had sex and Jess's beauty and sex made me shoot my load well early. This was a disappointment and a pleasant surprise at the same time as I will not be amongst the youngest of her clients but it is testimony to her seines. We then engaged in a conversation about what Jess has lined up for the future after she's retired from the game and it became clear that this lady has brains as well as a body. I finally left after having more than my allotted 30 mins so the delay at the start was more than made up for. Of the four ladies I have reviewed at the two MK establishments Jess has the best figure and I highly recommend her. I imagine she appeals to the younger punter in particular. The overall service was not as engaging or as hot as my favourite Bunny's but that really is nitpicking on my part and more of an indication of how highly I rate Jess's mate.
