Details of Service Provider:

Website: <http://victorias-sauna.business.site>

The Premises:

Flat above shops/barbers. Plenty of easy parking within 2 minute walk to location. Entrance very discrete as there is a alley to the side of barbers which takes you to rear entrance.

Flat itself seemed dated and rather run down though in the bedroom was a large mirror which was a nice touch if you like to watch yourself in action.

Bathroom like the rest of the flat was very run down again.

The Lady:

Poppy is a very slim, pale skin, brunette. But let down by her oral hygiene. I think a little bit older than the advertised 27, possibly early 30's

The Story:

I've been putting off writing this review as it is my first negative/neutral review so far....

So fancied a change from my usual annabellas mk punt and Victoria's in Wellingborough is quite local to me so thought I'd try it out. Downside with their website is that there are no photos of the escorts but opted to see Poppy as found photo's of her at a different parlour in Northampton with her face blanked out.

On arrival I was greeted by a nice receptionist who led me into a lounge and fetched me a cold glass of water and explained Poppy was running late. Waited for a good 10 minutes then Poppy entered the room. Was disappointed straight away. Firstly she is a lot skinnier than her photos to the point where she looks almost anorexic. I know a lot of guys do like skinny girls but she was just too skinny for my liking... And then she opened her mouth to speak.. Crikey! Those teeth!! Never seen such a green set of teeth, I presume from smoking cannabis. And what looked like bits of cannabis stuck in them. What have I got myself into here... but she seems nice enough so go through with it.

Poppy guides me into them bedroom where we sort out the payment first then we both remove our clothes and she gets me to lay face down first for a massage to begin with which started off badly with zero pressure and eventually turned into light finger tickling up and down my back which is doing nothing for me. Atleast I don't have to look at those teeth though! Poppy is very chatty throughout though and comes across as a nice enough girl.

She then asks me to turn over so she can begin oral. To begin with was good but soon wore off as she seem more interested in chatting than performing the bj. She eventually asked if I would like to go down on her which I happy to do. Surprisingly no bad smell or taste down there actually she seemed very clean. And then then time for the Jonny to come on where we started in cowgirl which was ok so long as I didn't look at her mouth.. she then wanted to change things up so we went into doggy so I didn't have to look at her teeth, they were so off putting. We then moved into missionary as this is apparently Poppy's favourite, where I starting to enjoy myself and was about to go in for some kissing but then those teeth again! So just a peck on the lips... couldn't get them teeth out of my mind from that point and started to loose momentum so she offer to finish me with hj.

There was still 30 minutes left so she asked if I'm a cum twice guy? "No thank you we can just chat." Just really wanted to get out of there and definitely couldn't go through that again. So we lay on the bed and had a nice chat mostly about Poppy's private life.. trying not to look at the teeth during this time but at same time couldnt take my eyes of them! Actually noticed that she is a very pretty girl and has a good set of teeth just such a shame they are so disgustingly green. Im sure I'm not the only guy put off by those teeth, you would have thought being a parlour girl, the people running these parlours would tell her take better care of herself as it must put clients of coming back. Finally time was up and was offered a shower, and I was on my way!
