The Premises:

An apartment block close to East Croydon train station that I have previously punted at. No parking is available but the premises is easy to reach by public transport. The flat is lived in and was clean and fairly tidy. Bathroom facilities and the actual bed were very good.

The Lady:

Melissa's AW photos and description are accurate. She is a very attractive tanned Brazilian in her mid 20s, about 5'6" with waste length dark hair and D breasts. She speaks very little English, has some tattoos and was friendly throughout. There was a pack of cigarettes in the bedroom but she didn't smell of smoke.

The Story:

I had an itch that needed scratching and Melissa's profile on AW caught my eye as one of the ever-increasing number of Brazilians working in South London. Comms were done by text with Melissa texting me her flat number when I arrived outside her block. All very quick and easy.

Once the paperwork was completed for a 30 minute stay, we both got naked and had a good feel of each others bodies. Melissa was happy to have her breasts, hair and clit played with and made all the right sounds. Unfortunately there was no kissing on the lips despite her AW profile saying she offers DFK.

Melissa then put the jonny on and gave me a very good blow job. Unfortunately it didn't last long as she then got on top of me without lubing up and really seemed to be going for it. After cowgirl, I gave her a good pounding doggy style until I came. After that we both freshened up in the bathroom with Melissa taking a shower.

Anybody who has read this far is probably now wondering why my recommendation is neutral rather than positive. The reason is because when I withdrew after coming I noticed that the jonny was covered in blood. Unfortunately she was working during her period. She apologised but it was clear that it was an intentional decision to carry on working on her part.

I might see Melissa again if I have any spare cash after paying my next energy bill but not when she is on her period. The date of this review should hopefully help other punters who might be tempted to see her to time their visit better than I did.
